4. Elements of Privacy Policy

This Policy describes generally acceptable privacy principles for the protection and appropriate use of personal information and SPDI at the Company.

4.1. Consent

The Company shall obtain consent from the Data subject before collecting, receiving, possessing, storing, dealing or handling personal information or SPDI of the provider of such information. No PI/SPDI shall be used by the Company without the consent of the provider of the information. The consent shall be obtained (in writing or electronically) from the Data subjects before or at the time of collecting PI or SPDI.

The Data subject shall be provided with a choice to opt out and withdraw any consent previously given by way of written communication to the Company.

4.2. Collection of Personal Information

- a) The Company shall not collect PI or Sensitive personal data or information (SPDI) unless: (i) the information is collected for a lawful purpose connected with a function or activity of the Company or any person on its behalf; and (ii) the collection of the PI / SPDI is considered necessary for that purpose.
- b) While collecting PI/ SPDI directly from the person concerned, the Company or any person on its behalf shall take such steps as are, in the circumstances, reasonable to ensure that the person concerned is having the knowledge of: (i) the fact that the information is being collected; (ii) the purpose for which the information is being collected; (iii) the intended recipients of the information; (iv) the name and address of the agency that is collecting the information; and (v) the agency that will retain the information.
- c) The Company or any person on its behalf holding PI/ SPDI shall not retain that information for longer than is required for the purposes for which the information may lawfully be used or is otherwise required under any other law for the time being in force.
- d) The PI/SPDI collected shall be used for the purpose for which it has been collected.

- e) The Company shall address any discrepancies and grievances of the provider of the PI/ SPDI in a time bound manner. For this purpose, the Company shall designate a Grievance Officer and publish his name and contact details on its website. The Grievance Officer shall use best endeavours to redress the grievances of the provider of information expeditiously within one month from the date of receipt of grievance.

4.3. Disclosure of Information

- a) Disclosure of PI/ SPDI by the Company to any Third Party shall require prior permission from the provider of such information, who has provided such information under lawful contract or otherwise, unless such disclosure has been agreed to in the contract between the Company and the provider of information, or where the disclosure is necessary for compliance of a legal/regulatory obligation;

Provided that the information shall be shared by the Company, without obtaining prior consent from the provider of information, with Government agencies mandated under the law to obtain information including sensitive personal data or information for the purpose of verification of identity, or for prevention, detection, investigation including cyber incidents, prosecution, and punishment of offences. The Company will use best endeavours to ensure that the Government agency sends a request in writing to the Company possessing the sensitive personal data or information stating clearly the purpose of seeking such information, and stating that the information so obtained shall not be published or shared with any other person.

- b) The Company shall disclose any PI/ SPDI to any Third Party by an order under the law for the time being in force.
- c) The Company or any person on its behalf shall not publish the PI/ SPDI.

d) The Company shall use best endeavours (including by way of execution of appropriate non-disclosure agreements) to ensure that the Third Party receiving the PI/ SPDI from the Company or any person on its behalf shall not disclose it further.

4.4. Reasonable Security Practices and Procedures

The Company endeavour to have in place reasonable security practices and procedures in place to protect the PI/SPDI of the provider of information.
